HEADLINE: Kate Zurawski joins PRG Real Estate as Regional Director for the Western Carolinas

PRG Real Estate Management is pleased to welcome Kate Zurawski to the organization. Ms. Zurawski is originally from Medinah, Ohio and attended the University of Miami, Ohio. Here she obtained her Bachelors of Science in Business with a major in Marketing and a focus on Organizational Behavior. Upon graduation Kate relocated to Chicago where she became a corporate account manager for CDW, Inc.

Kate entered into the property management business when she relocated to San Diego, California and began working for H.G. Fenton Company. She began her career as a leasing consultant and was quickly promoted to assistant manager. After only 10 months in that position, she was again promoted to the community director. The community that she managed consisted of 352 units and Kate achieved 95% occupancy with a 10% positive variance to budgeted NOI.

Kate relocated to the Pittsburgh area where she responded to an ad for a property management position, quickly joining PRG as the Regional Director of the Western Carolinas. She will directly manage the Willow Ridge apartments in Charlotte, North Carolina, while overseeing Wellspring apartments in Columbia, South Carolina, Magnolia Townhomes and The Corners Apartments, both in Spartanburg, South Carolina.

PRG owns and manages over 5,600 units along the Eastern Seaboard, from Pennsylvania to Florida. The company has added 15 assets to its portfolio within the past four years, and now owns 24 communities throughout the country.
